Scripture:

Luke 12:34 "Seek the Kingdom of God above all else, and he will give you everything you need." (NLT)

(Please note that last week's scripture should have been Luke 12:31)

Message:

We have to be careful on whom and what we place a strong value. We should not place a higher value on the material or on people who would waste our time and efforts. If we place value on the unimportant things and people in our lives, we are really losing our focus. Why? Because we begin to treasure them more than the things and people who really matter. It becomes sad when we put our heart and soul into what makes us poor, instead of what would give a rich quality to living.

Where you put your emphasis in life is really what you treasure or value most. So if you value and live a poor life, you will reap what you sow. But if you value the good things and people such as parents to guide you, friends who support you, then those relationships are special. Even more special is your relationship with Jesus Christ and your bond with Him which is meaningful and blessed. Where your treasure is, your heart will be there also. Treasure everything with and about Jesus Christ and secure your hearts' goals.

Activity:

Underline what you think we should value:

Honesty	Joy	Peace	Stealing
Lying	Truth	Parents	Sunday School
Church	God	Hatred	Gentleness

Jesus	Envy	Greed	Faithfulness

(Answer from last week)

Seek ye first the Kingdom of God,
And His righteousness,
And all these things shall be added unto you,
Singing Hallelu, Halleluia.

Ask and it shall be given unto you,
Seek and ye shall find,
Knock and it shall be opened unto you,
Singing Hallelu, Halleluia.
