Scripture:

Galatians 6:2 Carry one another's heavy loads. If you do, you will fulfill the law of Christ. (NIRV)

Message:

The day and time we find ourselves in difficulties, I know we would be very happy when someone comes to our rescue. It would be even better if things work out in a positive way. No one likes to find themselves in trouble especially if it happens suddenly or they had nothing to do with it. What is even worse is if you know of persons who can help you, but they choose not to help you for one reason or the other.

If we do not like when something is done to us, we should not do it to others. And so when we see our brothers, sisters and friends experiencing some trying times and it takes nothing from us to lend a helping hand, let us see how we can help or what we can do to make things better. We are to help each other so that life can be less challenging, less horrible for others. It is such a relief when someone rescues us, we too must bring some relief to others by helping them. When we do so, we would be doing the Christ-like thing and fulfill the law of Jesus.
